

North Carolina Coalition Against Sexual Assault

NCCASA

EDUCATION ♦ ADVOCACY ♦ LEGISLATION

The North Carolina Coalition Against Sexual Assault (NCCASA) is a nonprofit organization that serves as the sole statewide expertise and alliance working to end sexual assault and human trafficking through education, advocacy and legislation. NCCASA provides prevention education, intervention resources, and public policy to end all forms of sexual assault.

The North Carolina Coalition Against Sexual Assault (NCCASA) is offering a paid summer internship through the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation to assist with the 2021 Young Advocates Institute.

Position: Young Advocates Institute Intern

Internship description: Assist with the planning and marketing of 2021 Young Advocates Institute.

The intern will engage in the following projects:

- Responsible for managing communication and organizing the Young Advocates Institute Advisory Council
- Assist in promotion, organization and overall logistics of statewide Young Advocates Institute
- Assist with the setting up registration and confirmation processes for participants, speakers and vendors
- Assist with the marketing and social media relations related to the Young Advocates Institute
- Responsible for soliciting and following up with corporate and community sponsors
- Research and design youth-specific training
- Attend professional development opportunities as needed
- Assist in the social entrepreneurship ventures
- In spring/summer 2021, NCCASA will release an hour documentary on the ten years of the Young Advocates Institute. The Intern will help with all promotions and screenings of the film.

Check to see if you are eligible to apply here!

Apply for this position here!